Dear Vice-Chancellor,

At 15:1 the Higher Education sector has the largest ratio between the highest and lowest paid in the public sector. Growing academic evidence shows that organisations with greater equality tend to be more productive and workers enjoy a greater sense of well being.

I want to see greater income equality in Higher Education and on my campus. I am asking you to commit to fulfilling the following pledges to make our university a Fair Pay Campus:

- ✗ Will you publish the ratio between your highest and lowest paid worker?
- ✗ Will you commit to working towards a 10:1 pay ratio on campus?
- ✗ Will you pledge to pay directly employed workers the Living Wage?
- ✗ Will you ensure your contractors pay their workers the Living Wage?
- ✗ Will you publish the pay of Vice-Chancellors and senior management?
